

Dave Williams
Chairperson

Dave is the chairperson of Blacon Community Trust and volunteers their time to support the organisation. They bring experience in education, finance, strategic planning and governance. As a teacher for 30 years, a local Headteacher for 22 years and previously the chair of the Blacon school's partnership, Blacon Education Village, for over 10 years, Dave feels strongly that he knows our community well, will always try to act impartially and will listen to the voice of our local community.

Dave also has experience in supporting some of the most vulnerable members of our community and feels passionately that inclusion in any decision-making is for everyone. He is committed to supporting the development of Blacon Community Trust and the Blacon community.
